Dear Enoch,

Appreciation to the Professional Consultancy Service on ISO 9001:2008
Quality Management System Establishment

I am writing to acknowledge the professional support from you and your team on establishing the quality management system in my company on ISO 9001:2008, where the system compliance was also confirmed by DNV, an accredited certification authority on 15 May 2013.

I would like to express my special compliment to your team members. During the phase of implementation, they have not only supported us through documentations, but also spent much time on interviewing my frontline colleagues. Their effort definitely proved that SHINGO is our "most preferred partner".

Thank you very much.

Yours sincerely,

Managing Director
